SENATE AND HOUSE.

Sherman's Bill Regarding Congressional Elections.

THE TARIFF'S SLOW PROGRESS

The Deadlock Broken in the House—
A Clash of Conflicting Interests—
The Oklahoma Bill.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, January 8.—The post-office committee reported a bill providing that an omission to pay lawful postage on a special delivery letter shall not prevent or delay its transmission and delivery, but that the lawful postage shall be collected on its delivery. Passed.

Sherman introduced a bill to make and alter the regulations as to the time and place and manner of holding elections for Representatives in Congress. Referred to committee on privileges and elections. He said the bill was prepared by a gentleman familiar with the subject, but did not care to have his name published. The bill is unpartisan, and is calculated to insure absolutely fair elections in every part of the United States. It is confined to the elections of members of Congress.

Hour offered a resolution (agreed to) calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury for the report of Special Treasury Officer Byrne made in November, 1887, in regard to the evasion of sugar duties in New York.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The Senate then resumed consideration of the tariff bill at the paragraph relating to collars and cuffs, fixing the duty on those composed entirely of cotton at 15c, per dozen pieces and 35c per cent ad valorem, and on those composed entirely or partly of linen, 30c, per dozen pieces and 35c per cent ad valorem.

Vance moved to strike out these rates and insert 40 per cent ad valorem. The proposed rates, he said, would be equivalent to a tax of 150 per cent ad valorem. The amendment was rejected by the usual party vote—yeas 19, nays 24.

No amendment was offered to the paragraph taxing hemp or jute carpeting 65c per square yard.

Jones, Arkansas moved to amend the paragraph which taxes bagging for cotton, gunny cloths, etc., for covering cotton composed wholly or partly of hemp, jute or jute butts, valued at not more than 35c per pound (35c per pound), by putting on the free list.

THE AMENDMENT WAS DISCUSSED

at great length by Berry, Jones, George, Allison, Sherman, Platte, Butler, Aldrich, Hisecock, Vance and Coke.

One of the southern Senators said that the tax must come out of the pockets of southern planters and laborers, and be handed over to the manufacturers as a tax on the 250,000 men, women and children who furnished the manual labor of the south to make the cotton. They were being robbed to give the 5,000 in the employ of the commanding trust higher wages than the average of those who paid the tax.

He spoke of the cotton bagging trust as a conspiracy.

Allison said the question related practically not to the cotton bagging paragraph alone but to every paragraph in the bill. If the arguments of the Senators were to prevail the whole bill would be cut up in detail and destroyed.

IT WAS NOT A QUESTION

between 5,000 laborers on one side and 250,000 on the other. It was a question solely of under existing conditions. It was a question of whether it was wise to have cotton bagging and other manufactures made in the United States or whether it was wiser to root up in detail the manufacturing industry of the country and to have all manufactured goods made elsewhere. That was all there was in the question. The raw material of cotton bagging and jute was not produced in the country practically, though some jute was now grown in Texas. It was produced exclusively in India.

A vote was taken on Jones' amendment, which was rejected—yeas 12, nays 24—Brown voting with the Republicans in the negative.

Jones then moved to reduce the rate from 35c to 25c, and the motion was rejected, Brown again voting in the negative.

ON MOTION OF ALLISON,

the value limit of 3 cents a pound in the paragraph was reduced to 2½ cents.

Vest moved to go back to paragraph 44 and put burlaps on the free list. Rejected, Brown again voting in the negative.

Vance moved to add a proviso to the section, that no duty on the article in the section should exceed the rate of 50 per cent ad valorem. No action was taken, and the bill went over till tomorrow, Allison giving notice that unless better progress were made with the bill he would, to-morrow or next day, move evening sessions, to meet at 6 and at 11 p. m.

The House joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of War to loan the committee on inaugural the services of flags, etc., was reported by Hawley and passed. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, January 8.—Reed, of Maine, fired the first gun of the fifth days' contest over the proposed change of rules, calling up the resolution reported by him from the committee on rules. The shot took effect, the previous question was ordered on the resolution—117 to 120. Then Holman, of Indiana, in pursuance of the caucus action, last night, moved to recommit the resolution upon that motion, and demanded the previous question.

Payson, of Illinois, desired to move to recommit the resolution with instructions to the committee on rules how to act in the premises, but the Speaker ruled that one motion to recommit having been made and the previous question demanded, and another motion to recommit, even though coupled with instructions, was not in order unless on a demand for the previous question.

The vote stood, yeas 133, nays 5. RESOLUTION RECOMMENDED.

Cheadle, of Indiana, raised the point of no quorum. The yeas and nays were ordered on the previous question—yeas 218, nays 4.

As the roll call on Holman's amendment was ordered and the vote promised to be close, much interest was manifested by members at their desks, who listened to the response with intense interest. The vote resulted yeas 120, nays 117, and the resolution was recommended.

one question. The vote stood, yeas 133, nays 5.

RESOLUTION RECOMMENDED.

A CLASH.

The flour was then accorded to the committee on printing, providing for the printing of documents, and then there was a clash of conflicting interests.

Crisp, of Georgia, called up the contested election case of Small v. Elliott, from the Seventh South Carolina Congressional District.

Blanchard, as the representative of the river and harbor bill, was promptly on his feet with a question to have the election case set aside, and was seconded by Springer, who wished the Oklahoma bill to have the precedence of consideration.

Crisp was victorious, the House by a vote of 100 to 63, determined to consider the election case, but his victory is not yet complete.

THE OKLAHOMA BILL.

Springer asked unanimous consent for making an order for the final vote on the Oklahoma bill at 3 o'clock to-morrow, and upon Finley, of Kentucky, objecting, Weaver moved to reconsider the vote by which the House determined to consider the election case. By raising the point of no quorum on the vote by a division, Weaver forced the yeas and nays vote upon Crisp's motion to table the motion.

Crisp's motion was agreed to—yeas 90, nays 15.

Weaver then, not in opposition to the election case, but in pursuance of his purpose to press the Oklahoma bill upon the House to the exclusion of every measure, moved to adjourn, and further, that when the House adjourned it be to meet on Thursday next. The latter motion was voted down—4 to 159—and Weaver substituted Friday for Thursday. No quorum voting on this motion, and Crisp appreciating the fact that there was no hope of securing one, stating he would call up the election case to-morrow.

Pending the motion to adjourn, Cox introduced for reference to the committee on commerce, a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to establish harbors at or near Point Barrow and Point Hope, Alaska, and the East Cape, of Siberia, or, in his discretion, at any one of these places, provided the consent of the Russian government be given to such establishment. The committee, on meeting on the commerce, will hold a special meeting for the consideration of this bill on Friday next.

Randall, from the committee on appropriation, reported the sundry civil appropriation bill. Calendar.

Crisp's motion was agreed to. Adjourned.

IN RAILWAY CIRCLES.

The Demurrage Question—General and Personal News.

"How does the demurrage circular strike me?" asked a prominent shipper yesterday, in response to the queries of a reporter. "Well, it will have a good effect. The only regret I have is that the charges were not placed at double the present figure. The fact of the whole matter is, that if the rule is enforced, and there is every indication that it will be, warehouses will be built here for the accommodation of shippers north and south, who send their products to this city and use the railway tracks for storage purposes. Let the rule be enforced. It will be productive of good all around."

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Local traffic is light, and the through is but a trifle better.

CHARLEY GOLDING, of the Rock Island, is home from San Francisco.

Union Pacific surveying parties are scattered through the country between Redding and Alturas in California.

The sign calling for 400 section men disappeared from the Union Pacific windows yesterday. It is said the number of hands wanted was secured.

The Order of Railway Conductors is said to be going to pieces at a rapid rate. There have been large secessions from its ranks in California. The reason for the dissatisfaction is said to be that it was used as a cat-in-the-hat in the Burlington strike.

The Union Pacific Company will soon inaugurate a change in the payment of its employees. The swift-winged pay car, whose coming has been looked for each month for so many years past, will be abolished, and the checks sent to the agent at each station.

It is just one year ago, since William Brown, general agent of the Rock Island, assumed charge of the local office. Coming here a perfect stranger, he had many difficulties to encounter. He has, however, overcome them all, and to-day he is one of the best known railway men in Utah, or wherever his railway extends.

The immense amount of gambling on Pullman cars is being ventilated by some of the eastern papers. It is said there is more gambling going on now than even before. The porters are supposed to put a stop to it, but a few dollars in the way of a fee is said to produce color blindness to such an extent as to render it impossible for that high and mighty official to distinguish a poker chip from a grip. It is said that an eastern duke lost over $5,000 on the trip from New York to San Francisco.

AMUSEMENTS.

CHIP O' THE OLD BLOCK.—A fair-sized audience composed of Mormons, Gentiles and a few critics, assembled at the Theatre last evening to see three or four clever people in that piece of amusing nonsense, a Chip o' the Old Block. The clever people in question are Scott, Mills, Reynolds and Bonstelle, who made fun by the funniest of the audience. The piece is neither worse nor better than the usual skeletons of stories surrounded by any amount of musical and specialty padding, designed to cover up its baldness; the villain was like a windmill and stoungton bottle combined, and the villainies were not much better; but as it was all a show made to laugh at, it didn't much matter whether you laughed at the serious or comical portions. The laughter and applause were moderate, and outside of the "ratty" demonstrations over the villain, everybody seemed to enjoy the show, so where's the use of any critical dissertation? It goes again to-night.

O'Connor, the Oarsman, Coming.

Mr. C. W. Brown, of the Saddle Rock, yesterday received a letter from Fred Mossop, of Toronto, one of the backers of John O'Connor, the champion oarsman of America, who is now on his way to California. O'Connor, accompanied by George Lee, the American oarsman, who is O'Connor's trainer, will be here about the 16th, stopping off to visit the city. They would like to give an exhibition on the lake were the weather favorable, and a very slight guarantee would be necessary. The cold and probably stormy time prevents such a possibility at present, but as they may return by this city during the summer, there will be little doubt of arrangements being made for them to give an exhibition race on the lake.

O'Connor goes to California for the purpose of rowing against Jacob Gaudaur, who is backed by St. John, of St. Louis. The race is not yet arranged. After this O'Connor goes to Australia to row against Searle, the Australian champion, if the latter will not visit California to row. On the return it is not improbable that Hanson will be with them, when an exhibition on the lake, with the finest oarsmen in the world pitted against each other, may be had, and not only lead a fresh reputation for the fast waters of our lake, but give an impetus to rowing matters here that will be lasting.

Mr. Brown has a fine picture of O'Connor in his boat, on exhibition at the Saddle Rock.

Telegraphic Briefs.

The Minnesota Legislature met on Tuesday.

The Kansas Legislature convened on Tuesday. The governor's message will not be presented until Wednesday.

Albert Davis, a prominent colored restaurateur, was killed Tuesday morning, in Pittsburgh. His alleged wife has been arrested.

The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pain in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton, Foreman Headlight, Morrilton, Ark.

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me."—E. Coburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.
